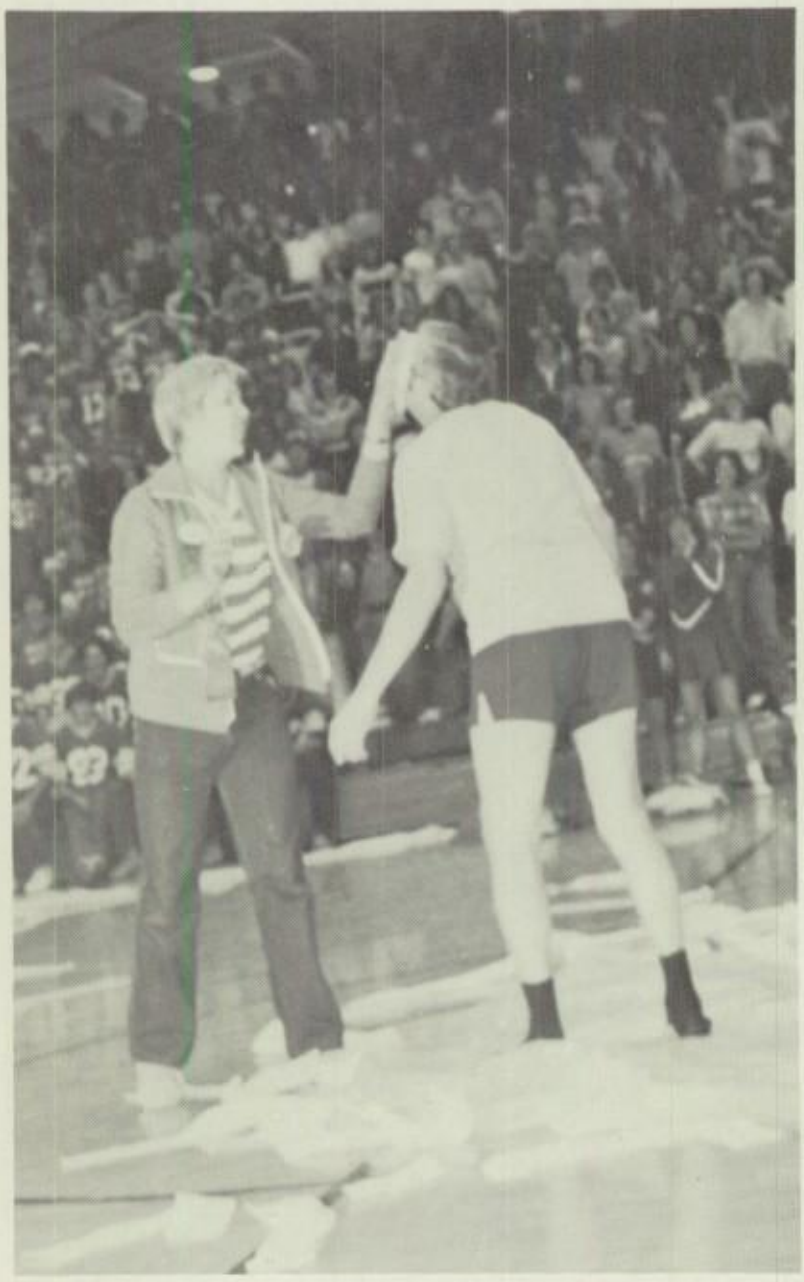
Right in the kisser!!



Homecoming Dance '81

There was "more dancin'" at the 1981 L-P Homecoming Dance than can be remembered in a long time. More couples on the floor of west gymnasium boogin' to the beat of "The Jerks," terrific group of local musicians.

An Hawaiian motif in gym-and-cafeteria decorations provided a luau-feeling for the more than 200 couples winding up the flurry of SuperWeek '81 activities.

"Next Monday, it'll be back to classes. No more hype from things like the variety show, dress-up days, the parade or pep assembly. For now, though, it's "The Jerks" and lots of great music," said one enthusiastic Homecoming Dance-goer.

1981-82 Cavalier Mascot

Senior RHONDA HUHN is a three-year veteran of the cheerleading squads, and super-active in tennis. She went-to-state in 1980 and 1981 and works after classes at the Ivy Racquet Club. Rhonda worked hard on her "mascot assignment": to coordinate activities of the Pep Club, Student Council and Cheerleaders; to promote and encourage real-spirit throughout the school.

Jim,
I can't understand why everyone keeps writing to "shoot it up" in your yearbook! I know you're such a good boy I was lucky enough to have you for 2 classes in a row, my god that was all I could handle! What a little trouble maker you can be. You can also be a very sweet guy!
Take care!

"This team went in with a feeling 'we-could-win every game.' That's spirit!"

COACH PANIZZI

They started in the summer-sun, winning national cheerleader camp awards — team and individual; raising funds with a garage sale at the home of co-sponsor Mrs. Mary Loebach, and cleaning-up on a car-wash.

All that, in addition to "working" five home football games, nearly a dozen basketball games, and every pep assembly during the year. Varsity cheerleaders, under co-sponsor Miss Jane Qusec, held a spring cheerleaders clinic for area grade school teams.

The 1981-82 cheer-year was a "10", too!

L-P's Marching Cavaliers came alive with a marathon of activities in 1981 — beginning in August with vigorous Marching Band workouts on the practice field and streets around the school, winding-up with Peru's Downtown Christmas Parade Dec. 5.

In-between, the band and color guard seemed to take only half-measure rests before launching into still another parade or competition. During September and October, busses moved out in steady file to Ft. Madison, Iowa for its rodeo parade, to Plano for the Northeastern Championship parade and field competition, to Champaign and the University of Illinois Championship, where it placed in the field and took high drum awards.

Back home, and almost simultaneously, the Marching Cavs maintained outstanding halftime performances at five home games in Fellows Stadium and went full-speed into the Super Week parade and pep assemblies of our 1981 Homecoming.

It took WORK on the part of the happy-hundred — like daily practice sessions on music, marching, maneuvers to achieve a razor-sharp musical-marching unit for an exciting year of parades, performances and field competitions.

There was a crisp new look about the L-P Marching Cavaliers in 1981. Four members proudly display new band uniforms: Gina Tobin, Gary Mueller, Angie Baldin and Shawn Brown.

Drum Majors are Gary Mueller and Leslie Gregorich. Color Guard Commander is Roberta Gerace.

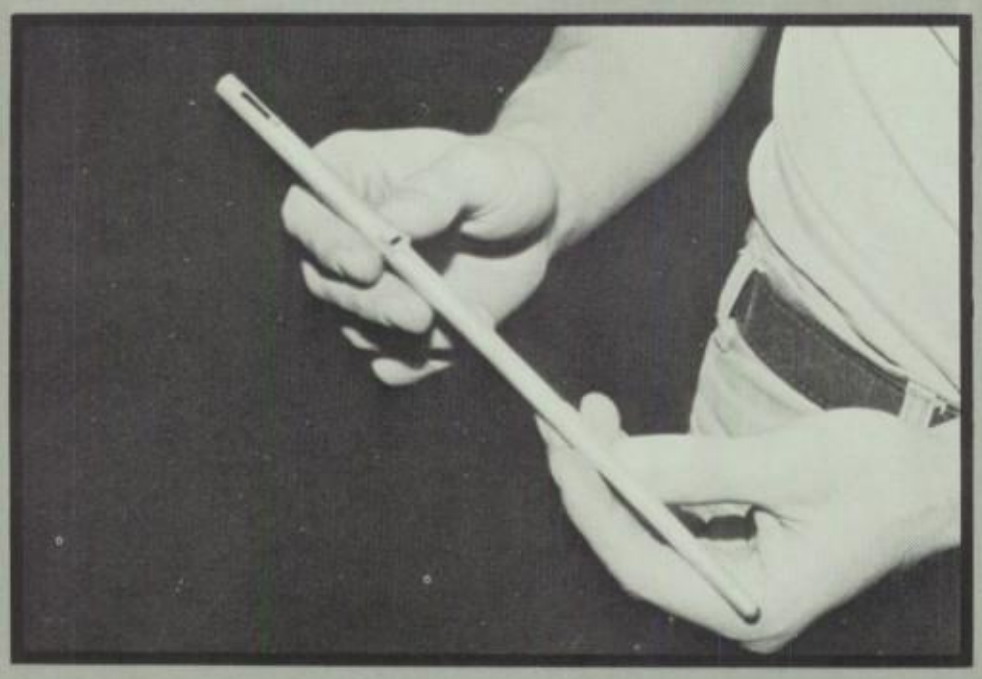
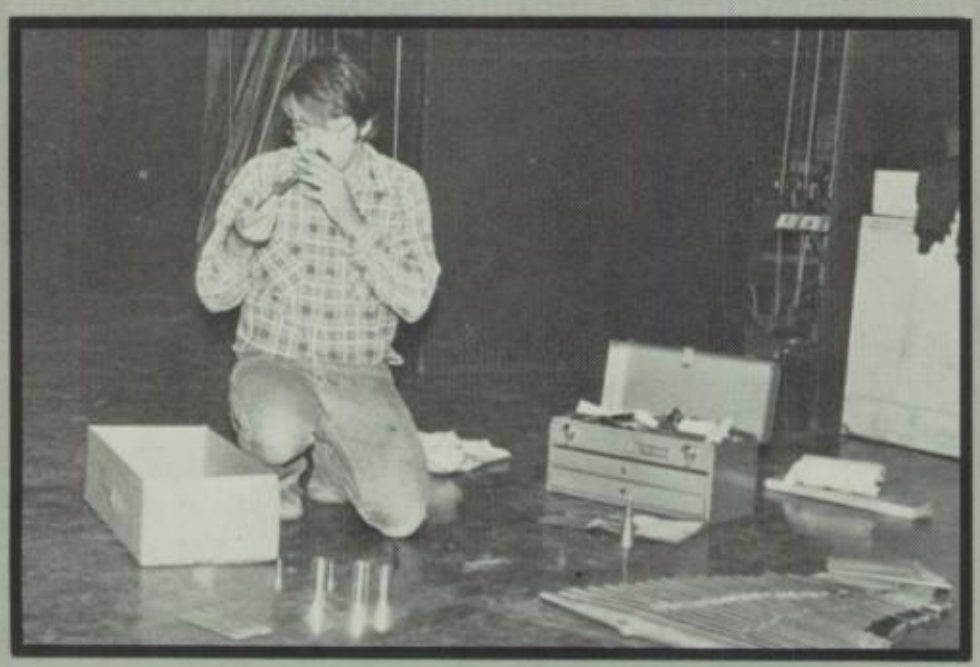
La Salle-Peru Tow Pres

Matthiessen





The Aeolian pipe organ in Matthiessen Auditorium was given to the community in 1927, and its care entrusted to La Salle-Peru High School and its boards of education.

This year the organ was completely restored. Each pipe, from the size of a tin-whistle (TOP) to the 16-foot wooden ones, were dismantled, carefully dusted and washed (ABOVE) pitched and revoiced (LEFT CENTER). The responses of the pipes were adjusted from the console (LEFT) to the leather bellows built high into the wings of the auditorium stage.

Our 54-year old Aeolian pipe organ received a brand-new "throat" and a sharp new "memory" for unveiling to the community during "Matthiessen Memories II".

Memories II

It was a Big Night for the community, for L-P, for alumni, for the Wind Ensemble. Called "Matthiessen Memories II," (following "Matthiessen Memories" (I) which dedicated a restored auditorium) the performance included Karen Huffstodt, operatic soprano, and Ruby Dobberstein-Ronald, BOTTOM, LEFT, piano recitalist. Both are Peru natives and L-P graduates.

William Evans, LEFT, put the completely-restored three-rank Aeolian pipe organ through some glorious paces for the SRO-audience Nov. 20, 1981.

The L-P Wind Ensemble, under the direction of John Bernzen, performed magnificently with organist Evans in the powerful "Crown Imperial" march.

It was an outstanding musical evening presented by professionals, to re-dedicate a great pipe organ.

THERE IS NO DEATH

THERE IS A PLAN far greater than the plan you know;
There is a landscape broader than the one you see.
There is a haven where storm-tossed souls may go . .
You call it death — we, immortality.

You call it death . . this seeming endless sleep;
We call it birth . . the soul at last set free.
'Tis hampered not by time or space — you weep.
Why weep at death? 'Tis immortality.

Farewell, dear voyageur — 'twill not be long.
Your work is done — now may peace rest with thee.
Your kindly thoughts and deeds — they will live on.
This is not death — 'tis immorality.

Farewell, dear voyageur — the river winds and turns;
The cadence of your song wafts near to me,
And now you know the thing that all men learn:
There is no death. There's immortality.

International Banquet

They ate, drank and were happy

Hardly a student will deny that food is the principal attraction at annual International Banquets. (In variety, quality and quantity, it has no equal.) But, at the 1981 event, Entertainment rivalled the buffet tables loaded with ethnic delicacies.

TOP: The Moulin Rouge "Can-Can" was danced by two chorus-lines of French Club members. ABOVE: The Spanish Club presented canciones Espanolas, singing "La Cucarache" and "Cielito Lindo". ABOVE, RIGHT: Beneath the disguise are pre-butterfly AFS Club members. Their skit, "My Pet Caterpiller", was highly successful. RIGHT: This area family from Germany were among the guests at the International Banquet, sponsored by the Foreign Language and AFS Clubs.

The '81 International Banquet, hosted by the Spanish Club and its sponsor, Miss Decaroli, entertained 350 students, faculty members and guests. ABOVE, Spanish Club members, Leslie Gregorich and Joanne Lowndes, seated at the "main table", were among emcees participating. ABOVE, RIGHT: The decorated Gingerbread House, an I-B doorprize, was won by Renee Nauman. LEFT, TOP: "Muss i denn" goes the round sung by the German Club. A "community-sing" concluded with "Up With People" and "It's a Small World". LEFT, BOTTOM: L-P Ushers helped servce beverages and kept the buffet tables filled with goodies.

They sang, danced and were merry . . .

TOP, RIGHT: These German Club officers helped line-up activities like a ski trip to Plum Tree, an Advent calendar sale, the Homecoming Queen's float and entertainment for the International Banquet. Officers, seated, Beth Panizzi, vice president; Sarah Schaede, secretary; Becky Benvenutti, treasurer. Rendee Hooper is president and Miss Emmel, club sponsor. ABOVE: German is the language for the Christmas tableau featuring Dan Witalka, Virginia Wolfe and Mike Wood as Sankt Nikolaus. Band
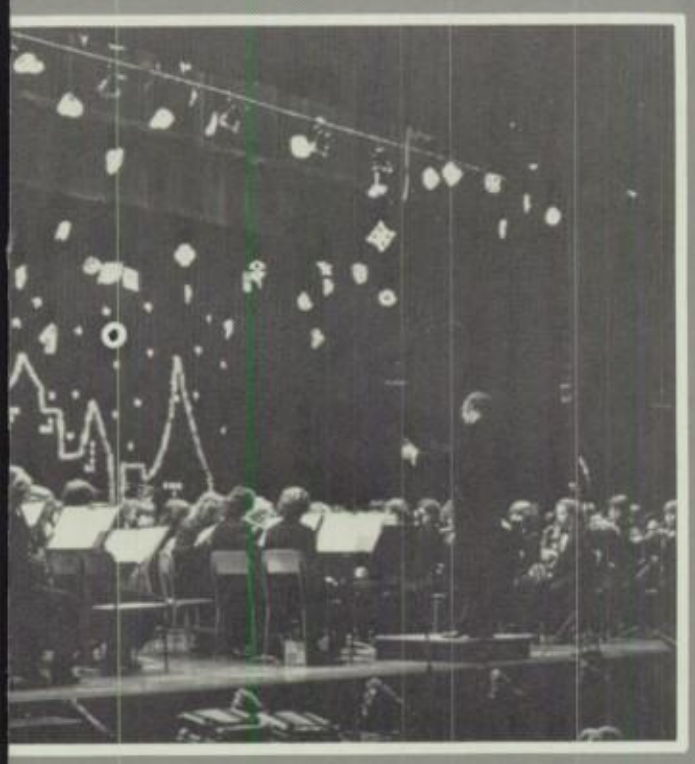
Chrismas,
1981



It was a terrific Christmas Band Concert! But long before the concert, band members cut-out "snowflakes" and strung garlands for the decorations on the Matthiessen Auditorium stage. John Bernzen and Tom Swain directed the band in contemporary and traditional carols. Jimmy Brown showcased his percussion section in seasonal novelties like "Trepak" and "Ten Magic Fingers". But Santa himself was the real-hero of the concert, distributing presents to the impromptu "rhythm band" members.

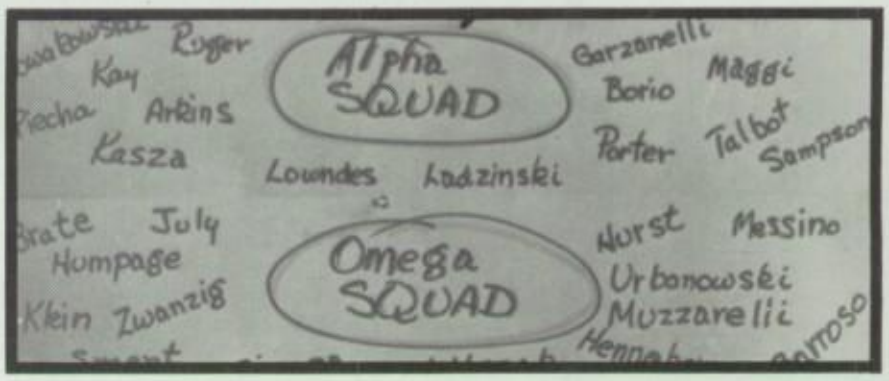
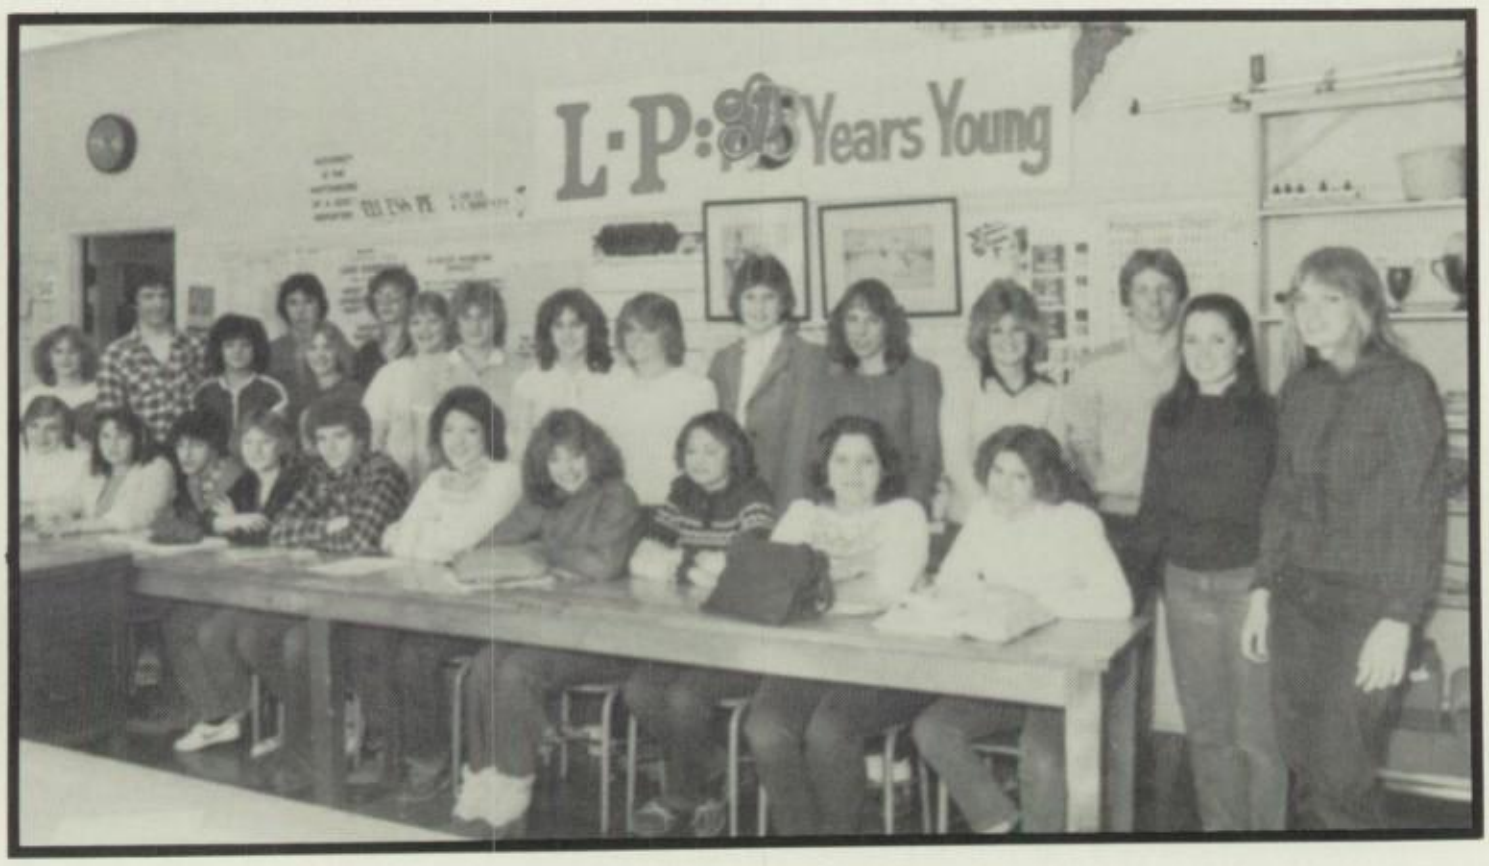
These were the reporters of Caval-Currents news — "All The L-P News That Fits — during the fall semester, 1981. Alphabetically, they are Jill Arkins, Tammy Barroso, Cari Borio, Laura Brate, Chris Garzanelli, Mary Henneberry, Ray Humpage, Lori Hurst, Lisa July, Deborah Kasza, Robert Kay, Herbert Klein, Susan Ladzinski, Joanne Lowndes, Lori Maggi, Kathleen Messino, Jill Muzzarelli, Mark Nowakowski, Mark Piecha, Nina Porter, Ken Ruger, Marnie Sampson, Patrick Sienza, Tamara Sment, Deborah Talbot, Katherine Urbanowski, Teresa Witczak, Ann Zwanzig.

Caval-Currents
Fall Staff '81





New on the L-P scene was this staff of reporters, who reviewed the stories of campus-life and beyond, from January through May, '82. They are, in alphabetical order, Thomas Assalley, Susan Bernardi, Tara Brantner, Jeffery Derango, Sandra Garber, Charlene Hallett, Michelle Harkins, Jeanine Hensler, Terry Huffstodt, Maribeth Jozwiak, Debra Kulpa, Linda Lamboley, William Liesse, Linda Lushina, Lizabeth Martyn, Valerie Mills, Kimberly Pittman, Perry Redman, Cindy Rife, Sarah Schaede, Craig Smith, Kristie Swanson, Carlene Tomsha, Brenda Tucker, Daniel Walters, Sandra Williams.

Spring Staff, 1982

Jim-
To a crazy kid who loved to get on Mr O'Keefe's nerves. Remember when we had [illegible] dancing in PE? Hope to see you at some parties over the summer! Luck always,
Tammy Taylor

-cp24,25The Luv-Ya Team

Student Literary Magazine

Luv Ya, Seniors

We have gathered the events of an entire school year, and bound them together into this LUV-YA Book — your book. It is a scrapbook of memories for now and for the future.

Within its covers is the story of L-P, 1981-82. It is also the story of one year of your life.

You are a part of L-P. You filled this book, and you made it work. The pictures and the words contained here are only a fragment of what you must hold in your heart and mind.

It is our hope that you will find cause to smile in wistful remembrance when you reopen the cover of this book years from now.
